Maltaş Shrine that is right next to Gazlıgöl giving life to Great Phrygian Civilisation is the key source to the first historical information of Gazlıgöl's holy water we accessed.

The holy water of this are in Phrygian Era is a subject to myths. According to a myth, Daughter of King of the Phyrgia Midas gets sick. Girl that can not fine a cure for his illness, goes to the mountains and one of these days comes to a hot waterfront. This girl gets well by taking bath in it. Men of Midas watching her immediately informs the king that lives in Ayazin. The king builds facilities around the hot water feeling happy because of his daughter's recovery.

When Abdulhamit the second heard about the benefits of sparkling water to health, He gave the usage concession to Hamidiye Ethal Hospital. The water in Gazlıgöl started to flow for good.

In the Independence War, veteran Mustafa Kemal Atatürk fell sick from his kidneys and found the cure from the sparkling water brought from Gazlıgöl.

After the war we won our independence, Atatürk helped establish a factory in Gazlıgöl township, Afyonkarahisar by personally giving his own fund.

for 96 years ...
